Ordway Smith was born in Logan county, Ohio, March 17, 1833, and died at his home in Highland, Aug. 31, 1911, aged 78 years, 5 months and 14 days. He had been a resident of Highland county more than 60 years. He was one of a family of 10 children, three of whom are still living. He was a soldier in the late war enlisting in Co. D 48th Ohio. He served two years, when he was sent home on account of ill health. After several months stay he enlisted in 175th Ohio, remaining until the close of the war. He was a good soldier. During the ministry of Rev. J. S. Pumphrey he united with the M. E. Church. For many years past his health has been very poor. Gradually day by day his physical powers seemed to give way until the end came. He, with his only surviving sister, Helen, have lived together in the old home since the death of his brother, Levi, seven years ago. He was strongly attached to his friends, especially those of former years, and always inclined to remember a favor from any one. During all the years of his affliction he has been disposed to bear whatever came to him with patience, manifesting no disposition to murmur or complain. The funeral service was held in the M. E. Church conducted by Rev. E. L. Knox, after which the body was laid to rest in the Highland Cemetery.
